

How will you show gratitude for the sacrifices of the ANZACS this ANZAC Day?

Talara Primary College invites you to participate in the annual school ANZAC Day writing competition.

Students will write to the picture stimulus question:

“How will you show gratitude for the sacrifices of the ANZACS this ANZAC Day?”

and will be judged on their ability to show:

- Understanding of the significance of ANZAC Day
- Personal voice or connection
- Creativity and originality

Entries are to be no more than two pages (200 words) in length. and will be accepted in the following categories:

- Junior: Prep and Year 1
- Middle: Year 2, Year 3 and Year 4
- Senior: Year 5 and Year 6

Winners will receive the exceptional honour of reading their writing at our ANZAC Service on April 23.

All entries are to be placed in the ANZAC boxes, located in the office foyer by Monday, March 29. Remember to include your name and class on your writing. Winners will be notified in week 10 this Term. Good luck!
